

National Catholic Singles Conference

Laughter. Wisdom. Joy. Hope. Memories.

And great new friends!

In Beautiful Denver, Colorado, February 10-12, 2006

Join 500+ men and women for the 2nd National Catholic Singles Conference!

Be inspired by top Catholic speakers.

Let prayer and worship infuse your life with a greater peace.

Meet hundreds of other single Catholics who face the same challenges you do.

And walk away with greater joy and passion in living out your single life, preparing for marriage, or whatever else God has planned for your future!

Speakers and Activities:

- Archbishop Chaput of the Archdiocese of Denver, celebrant and homilist for Holy Mass on Saturday.
- Bishop Sheridan of the Diocese of Colorado Springs, celebrant and homilist for Holy Mass on Sunday.
- Matthew Kelly, international speaker & author of many books including A Call to Joy, Rediscovering Catholicism, The Rhythm of Life and others, will speak on The Seven Levels of Intimacy.
- Mary Beth Bonacci, international speaker & author of Real Love and We're On a Mission from God, will speak on the single life and John Paul II's Theology of the Body.
- Fr. Thomas Loya, from Relevant Radio, and a dynamic, creative and compelling national speaker on the Theology of the Body, will address some of the most challenging issues in male/female relationships.
- Dave Sloan will MC and share his own journey from addiction, incarceration and homeless to national writer and speaker on love, sex, dating, and living in Christ as real men and real women.
- Dr. Kimberly Schmidt will speak to the women on the issues of freedom and the healing of relationships.
- Fr. Andreas Bonenberger of the Community of the Beatitudes will discuss discernment & the Christian life.
- Prayer and Praise throughout the weekend – Adoration, praise & worship, time for confession and more.
- Meet Many Other Singles – mix and mingle, socialize and share, dine and dance!
